DEFENDANTS' SUPPLEMENTAL REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL
NOTICE OF NEW EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANTS'
OPPOSITION TO THE MOTION
FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Date: September 11, 2026
Time: 1:30 p.m.
Courtroom: 9B
Judge: The Honorable Mónica
Ramírez Almadani
Trial Date: Not set
Action Filed: 7/01/2026

REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

In support of the Defendants' opposition to the United States's motion for a preliminary injunction, Defendants respectfully request that, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, the Court take judicial notice of the following September 29, 2026 updates to the California Department of Justice's Roster of Handguns Certified for Sale ("Handgun Roster").¹

1. The California Department of Justice's "Recently Added Handgun Models" webpage, which shows the handgun models that have been recently added to the Handgun Roster, including the new Glock semiautomatic pistol model, Glock 43X CA, added to the Handgun Roster on September 29, 2026. It also shows that, since September 3, 2026, 34 other new handgun models have been added to the Handgun Roster, 31 of which are pistols that have a chamber load indicator and/or magazine disconnect mechanism. A true and correct copy of this webpage as of September 29, 2026, available on the California Department of Justice's website at <https://oag.ca.gov/firearms/certified-handguns/recently-added>, is attached as Exhibit A.

2. The California Department of Justice's "Handguns Certified for Sale" webpage, which has an "IMPORTANT INFORMATION" box with a bullet point that states: "A plus symbol (+) next to the model name below indicates that the handgun meets the definition of a 'machinegun-convertible pistol' under Penal Code section 16885, and thus cannot be sold, transferred, or delivered by a firearms dealer beginning July 1, 2026 unless a specified exception listed at Penal Code section 27595 applies." A

¹ Defendants are in the process of meeting and conferring with the United States regarding Defendants' anticipated motion to supplement the record on the motion for a preliminary injunction with this newly available information, consistent with the seven-day notice requirement in Central District of California Local Rule 7-3. Because the United States's motion for a preliminary injunction is currently under submission with the Court (ECF No. 49), Defendants submit this Request now in case helpful to the Court in the interim.

4 Exhibit B.

- 5 3. The California Department of Justice’s webpage listing for the new Glock
6 semiautomatic pistol model, Glock 43X CA, on the Handgun Roster, which
7 does not have a plus symbol next to the model name, indicating that it does 8 not fall within the definition of a machinegun-convertible pistol under 9 California Penal Code section 16885 and thus is not subject to the 10 prohibition on the sale, transfer, or delivery of machinegun-convertible
11 pistols by firearms dealers. A true and correct copy of this webpage as of 12 September 29, 2026, available on the California Department of Justice
13 website <https://oag.ca.gov/firearms/handgun/43x-ca>, is attached as Exhibit

14 C.

15 The Court may take judicial notice of “a fact that is not subject to reasonable
16 dispute” because it “(1) is generally known within the trial court’s territorial 17 jurisdiction; or (2) can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose 18 accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). The Court must 19 take judicial notice where “a party requests it and the court is supplied with the 20 necessary information.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(c).

21 Exhibits A (“Recently Added Handgun Models” webpage), B (“Handguns
22 Certified for Sale” webpage), and C (Glock 43X CA Handgun Roster webpage) are 23 judicially noticeable because they are official government publications produced by 24 California Department of Justice’s Bureau of Firearms. Smith v. Los Angeles
25 Unified Sch. Dist., 830 F.3d 843, 851 n. 10 (9th Cir. 2016) (“[C]ourts routinely take 26 judicial notice of letters published by the government ... as well as ‘records and 27 reports of administrative bodies.’”); Freshpoint Atlanta, Inc. v. Haywood, 2025 WL
28 2606626, at *2 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 9, 2025) (“The Court may take judicial notice of

1 information on government websites”) (collecting cases); Murphy v. Bronson,
2 Cawley & Bergmann, LLP, 2011 WL 2413447, at *3 (S.D. Cal. June 13, 2011)
3 (“Courts do take judicial notice of information found on government agency
4 websites”). The matters raised in these documents are publicly-available matters of 5 historic record that are not subject to reasonable dispute.

6 Defendants therefore respectfully request that the Court take judicial notice of 7 the materials described above.

8 Dated: September 30, 2026

Respectfully submitted,
